ASU Dining Halls have room for improvement

Problem Statement:
The ASU dining halls are lacking healthy and nutritional food options.

Solution:
Switch methods to a University-run food program so Arizona State will be able to control what food is being served.

92% of students have reported that they would like to see better quality food in the dining halls.